No. 70-CR-39

CLERK
U. S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER ON MOTION TO REDUCE BAIL PENDING APPEAL

Testimony was introduced to the effect that the defendant, Woodrow Jerome Howe, had demonstrated his willingness to appear during the trial of his case in this Court and did return to Court at the conclusion of each and all of the recesses had during the trial of his case.

Woodrow Jerome Howe, defendant, is of the belief that a $100,000.00 bail pending appeal is excessive. The Court does not think so. The defendant lives in Los Angeles, California, some 1,400 miles from this district, and as shown by the evidence is and was a wholesaler of great quantities of heroin. The defendant made available to all of his customers any given amount of heroin without delay and at excessive prices.

The Court is convinced from the evidence in the trial of this case that the defendant, Woodrow Jerome Howe, has through the wholesale, distribution and sale of heroin made large sums of money; that by his wholesale and distribution, he has participated in the damage and ruination of the lives of many citizens.

From the evidence in this case, the Court is convinced that if the defendant makes bond that he would never return to serve the sentence imposed in this case; that he would establish residence in some foreign country and continue in some way his trafficking of narcotics, and would be dangerous to the general public.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bail bond of $100,000.00 pending appeal be, and the same is not reduced but remains in said stated amount to make sure that the defendant is available to serve his sentence when and if the jury verdict is affirmed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT THE Motion to Reduce Bail Pending Appeal be, and the same is hereby denied.

John H. Pore
CLERK

ORDER ON MOTION TO REDUCE BAIL PENDING APPEAL

The defendant, Lewis C. Butler, aka Sonny Butler, has orally requested the Court to reduce his bail bond pending appeal from $100,000.00 to a lesser amount, and the Court is not inclined to do so. It is true the defendant appeared and answered ready for trial when this case was called for trial, and it is true that the defendant during the four-day trial reported for trial at the end of each and all the recesses. The defendant at one time was a citizen of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, but has made his home and residence in California for more than ten years. The defendant, Lewis C. Butler, has had no other occupation than the trafficking and the sale of narcotics. He lives more than 1,400 miles from the jurisdiction of this Court and if he should make bond, the Court is convinced that the defendant will return to the illegal trafficking of narcotics; he has no other work record, and would be dangerous to the general public.

The Court is convinced from all of the evidence introduced in the trial of this case that he will leave this country and go to a foreign country to avoid the penalties imposed upon him as a result of the jury verdict of guilty in this case.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the heretofore fixed bond of $100,000.00 be and remain in said stated amount and that the Motion to Reduce said bond be denied.
